|------------------------------|-------------|---------------------|------------------------|
| The last Sunday of the month | 1 p.m. | $40 (+ $5 add-on) | Turbo |

- For forty-dollar ($40) promotional tournaments, an amount of twenty-three dollars ($23) will be allocated to the prize pool, fifteen dollars ($15) to administrative costs and two dollars ($2) to the Bad Beat tournament jackpot.
- For forty-dollar ($40) promotional tournaments, an optional five-dollar ($5) add-on can be made to receive an additional ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in tournament chips, while two dollars ($2) will be allocated to the Bad Beat tournament jackpot.
- The structure for forty-dollar ($40) promotional tournaments is presented in Appendix A and the prize distribution is presented in Appendix B.
- The tournament rules for recurring tournaments also apply to promotional tournaments, except where noted.
- Promotional tournaments will be played starting on August 12, 2019, in Casino de Montréal and Casino du Lac-Leamy poker rooms.

3. In Bounty tournaments, the player who eliminates another player during a hand will win twenty-five dollars ($25) for each player eliminated during the one-hundred-and-twenty ($120) Deep Stack Turbo tournament. Only the player with the highest hand during a game where a player is eliminated will receive the specified amount. If more than one (1) player have the same highest hand during a game where a player is eliminated, the amount is shared equally amongst those players.
4. Subject to the application of Section 12 of the rules herein, as appropriate, each player will be allowed to register only once.
5. Third-party representation at the Tournament is strictly prohibited.
6. Employees of the Société des casinos du Québec inc. (hereafter referred to as the "SCQ") cannot play in a Tournament.
7. Position assignments at the start of the Tournament and at the beginning of the final game, as appropriate, will be determined by random draw.
8. Players are responsible for checking the information indicated on their registration and assignment forms.
9. All players will begin Tournament play at the same time.
10. Players can register up until the end of the first break if positions remain available after the Tournament start signal, for seventy-five-dollar ($75) recurring tournaments and forty-dollar ($40) promotional tournaments, or until the second break for Deep Stack Turbo, Deep Stack Turbo Bounty and major tournaments. The stake for such players will be as indicated in Section 13 of the rules herein.
11. Players who arrive after the start signal can join a Tournament, although they must take into consideration that the dealer will have collected chips in the amount of each blind that would have been played had the player been present. However, players will be deemed to have dropped out of the Tournament as soon as one of the two following situations occurs: 1) their stake is insufficient to cover the blind they would have had to play, had they been present, or 2) their rank during the Tournament, had they been present, would have qualified them to win a Tournament prize.
12. If no unoccupied positions are available, players can, up until the end of Level 4, have their names added to a waiting list for a chance to play in the Tournament if a position becomes free following a player's elimination. This option can be chosen until the end of the first break if positions remain available after the Tournament start signal, for seventy-five dollar ($75) recurring tournaments and forty-dollar ($40) promotional tournaments, or until the second break for Deep Stack Turbo, Deep Stack Turbo Bounty and major tournaments. The stake for such Players will be as indicated in Section 13 of the rules herein.
13. At the start of a Tournament, each player will receive non-cashable tournament chips in the amount of:
 - a. Five thousand dollars ($5,000) for recurring seventy-five-dollar ($75) tournaments.
 - b. Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for recurring ninety-five-dollar ($95) Deep Stack Turbo tournaments.
 - c. Twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for recurring one-hundred-and-twenty-dollar ($120) Deep Stack Turbo Bounty tournaments and five-hundred-and-fifty ($550) major tournaments.
 - d. Fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for forty-dollar ($40) promotional tournaments.
14. During a Tournament, tournament chips must always remain in the designated chip area on the table and in sight of other players.
15. No resupply will be permitted during a Tournament. Players who are eliminated from the Tournament prior to the end of the first break for seventy-five-dollar ($75) recurring tournaments and forty-dollar ($40) promotional tournaments, or until the second break for Deep Stack Turbo, Deep Stack Turbo Bounty and major tournaments, can, however, re-register for the same Tournament subject to the conditions indicated in Sections 10 and 11 of the rules herein. Such new registration is, therefore, not considered resupply.

16. At the end of the first break for seventy-five-dollar ($75) recurring tournaments and forty-dollar ($40) promotional tournaments, or until the second break for Deep Stack Turbo, Deep Stack Turbo Bounty and major tournaments, players who consider their stake insufficient can surrender their chips if allowed at the table. In this case, their name will be added to the waiting list for a chance to take part in the same Tournament again, according to the order on the list, if and when a seat becomes available. A Supervisor will remove abandoned chips from the Tournament.
17. The game category will be “no limits.”
18. For the first hand of a Tournament at each table, as well as for the first hand of the final game at the table designated for that purpose, the dealer button will be placed in the first position on the dealer’s right.
19. In all tournaments, the player in position for the big blind with the button must place an additional bet according to the tournament type indicated in Appendix A. The amount of the required additional bet is equal to the amount of the big blind and increases at the same time. The two players to the left of the button pay the small and big blinds, respectively. When six (6) players or less (one table minimum) are left at a Tournament table, the amount of the required additional bet will be equal to the small blind instead of the one indicated in Appendix A. In all cases, the house recovers the additional bet. A player will not pay the additional bet more than once per round. When there are two (2) players left in the Tournament, the additional bet is withdrawn and only blinds are required.
20. Blind and additional bet amounts will increase at thirty-minute (30) intervals for major tournaments, at twenty-minute (20) intervals for seventy-five-dollar ($75) recurring tournaments, and fifteen-minute (15) intervals for Deep Stack Turbo tournaments, Deep Stack Turbo Bounty tournaments and promotional tournaments, in accordance with Appendix A.
21. Breaks are announced at the start of the tournament.
22. Players, whether or not they are present, must place their blinds and additional bets in accordance with Section 19 of the rules herein at every interval until they exhaust their supply of chips. Should the player be absent, the dealer will take the bet amounts from the player’s tournament chips, in accordance with Section 10 and 11 of the rules herein.
23. Players who are absent from the table when the last card of the initial deal is distributed will be deemed to have surrendered.
24. Tournament chips cannot be transferred and association among players will not be tolerated.
25. During the Tournament, the Tournament Supervisor will balance off the number of players at each table as places free up due to elimination.
26. The Tournament Supervisor can instruct the player who is next to place the big blind at the table to move to another table and seat of the Supervisor’s choosing. The player must promptly transfer to the new seat assignment and assume the responsibilities of that seat.
27. When a table is closed to reassign players to other tables, position reassignment will be determined by random draw.
28. When the number of non-eliminated players approaches the number required for the final game or the number of Tournament prizes, the Tournament Supervisor can order games to be played one at a time until the appropriate number of players is reached.
29. Once the number of players required for the final game has been reached, the position assignment of such players at the designated table will be determined by random draw.
30. Players exhibiting inappropriate behaviour can be penalized. Penalties include: verbal warning, time-out from playing an increasing number of rounds and disqualification. Penalties applied will be entirely at the Tournament Supervisor’s discretion.
31. When more than one player is eliminated in the same Tournament hand, the player who started the hand with the highest stake will end with the highest rank among concerned players, provided that they played at the same table. If their stakes at the start of the game were equal, those players will share the same rank and, if appropriate, the prize amount matching those ranks. It is understood that there cannot be a tie for 1st place.

32. At the last stage of a Tournament, players in the final game who have the most tournament chips will receive, as appropriate, a Tournament prize matching their rank as indicated Appendix B. The player who finishes the Tournament with all the tournament chips will be declared the first-place (1st) winner and will receive first (1st) prize, as indicated in the tables presented in Appendix B of the rules herein. The other players will receive, as appropriate, the remaining prizes according to their rank at elimination, as described in the tables presented in Appendix B.
33. The SCQ will require each player to show a valid form of government-issued photo ID before awarding a prize, if any.
34. Prizes must be accepted “as is” and cannot be exchanged or transferred. The SCQ reserves the right to replace a prize with another of equal value.
35. The name, address and photograph of each Tournament player as well as any other information voluntarily provided can be used by the SCQ for advertising, promotional or other purposes. In this regard, players must waive all rights to broadcasting, printed material, advertising or compensation of any kind whatsoever.
36. In taking part in a Tournament, players will be deemed to have agreed to their likeness being recorded and broadcast by media present in the Casino for purposes related to the Tournament (including in social media). In this regard, players must waive all rights to broadcasting, advertising or compensation of any kind whatsoever.
37. Players who give written notice of their withdrawal from a tournament at least twenty-four (24) hours before the start of a major tournament, or one (1) hour before the start of other tournaments, can be reimbursed the tournament fee indicated in Section 2 of the rules herein, with the exception of players who received the Tournament seat as a prize, in which case no reimbursement or compensation will be paid.
38. The SCQ reserves the right to cancel or amend a Tournament in a manner that is fair to players. The SCQ also reserves the right to amend the rules herein, in which case revised rules will be made available to the public.
39. The SCQ declines all responsibility towards anyone should the Tournament be canceled or changed.
40. In the event that the SCQ cancels the Tournament, registration fees paid in accordance with Section 2 of the rules herein will be refunded to players.
41. Players agree to comply with the rules herein, Texas Hold'em poker rules, general poker room rules as well as other rules and conditions applicable in SCQ casinos and, in so doing, agree to contribute to the smooth operation of the Tournament.
42. Any dispute arising during the Tournament will be submitted as appropriate to the Tournament Supervisor, whose rulings will be final and binding.
43. The Tournament is subject to the rules herein, which are available at the Casino du Lac-Leamy poker room or by calling 819-772-2100.
